

Boss Surprise!

One Night, I had a nice brunette woman inviting me down to the toilet at work, to see her secret tattoo. I am working as a bartender in Norway, and this was highly irregular, and I thought she was joking, but she proved me WRONG. I followed her downstairs, She pulled ME into the ladies room, locked the door, and quickly told me she REALLY meant business. She pushed me against the door, and pulled down her pants, and showed me her butterfly-tattoo under her navel. I said "Oh....that's nice" and she replied hungrily; "wanna take a closer look?"....and I answered OF COURSE-"yes". I kneeled down and started smelling her tattoo, told her it smelled wonderful, and she was starting to breathe heavy already and asked if anything else smelled good, and I was on! I answered her panties were smelling good and she let them fall! Oh my god, she was wet, and I shoved my face in between her legs and worked my tongue in her glorious hole and clit. She was moaning quite loudly, and suddenly, my male boss was on the bathroom-door! I panicked a little and stopped what I was doing, but to my awe, the door was unlocked, and he opened the door, understanding exactly what we were doing. He then said "Oh, I see you're busy here", and I couldn't even reply, before he said: "please continue" and came in to our bathroom seance and locked the door behind him. He then said "Looks like she's doing fine with your workin' down there", and she replied "yes it's lovely". I was astonished, but then again, I was also getting too horny to stop, so I turned again to her lovely secret tattoo and glories, and continued my work on her, when he grabbed my ass and said "Too long I have been waiting to get a taste of this...now it's time...", and he undressed me from behind my back and went straight and lustily for my ass. His tongue in my ass, and mine in the brunettes lovely wet pussy was something wild and wicked! We worked until she came and my boss also came from licking me and giving himself a handjob at the same time. Then they both left the bathroom, like NOTHING had ever happened, and I was sitting there like a dead horse, with my blown up prop, and lust-filled mind.... thinkin' "this should be a regular day in the bar...." Phew!
